

Exam #1 Review Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Your exam will primarily (or entirely) consist of multiple choice questions, however I reserve the right to include fill in the black and open-ended/short response questions. If these are included, they will be worth more per question but will be fewer in number.

1) Literary Elements

- *Definition of
- *Identification of (specifically in previously unseen passages)
- *Identification of (specifically in the readings from the class)

2) Recall of Class Texts

- *"The Scarlet Ibis"
- *"A Hanging"
- *Background information
- *Interpretation from discussion

3) Vocabulary--similar to your vocabulary quiz

4) Writing

- *Difference between expository and analysis essays
- *Type of prompt identification
- *Literary/rhetorical analysis thesis format

5) Basic grammar--simple parts of speech identification (not gerunds, participles, or infinitives)

Exam #1 Review Sheet

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Your exam will primarily (or entirely) consist of multiple choice questions, however I reserve the right to include fill in the black and open-ended/short response questions. If these are included, they will be worth more per question but will be fewer in number.

1) Literary Elements

- *Definition of
- *Identification of (specifically in previously unseen passages)
- *Identification of (specifically in the readings from the class)

2) Recall of Class Texts

- *"The Scarlet Ibis"
- *"A Hanging"
- *Background information
- *Interpretation from discussion

3) Vocabulary--similar to your vocabulary quiz

4) Writing

- *Difference between expository and analysis essays
- *Type of prompt identification
- *Literary/rhetorical analysis thesis format

5) Basic grammar--simple parts of speech identification (not gerunds, participles, or infinitives)